Hixburg

The mud kept Clarence Brown from church on Sunday, April 1. Although he was all dressed up in his Sunday best ready to go to hear Dr. Twyman Williams preach at Walker's Presbyterian church, at Hixburg, he could not get his car over the short farm road to the hard surface.

Two loads of gravel had been put on the farm road, but it just sunk out of sight.

Pvt. Robert Walker Covington, who had been stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C., left on Friday, April 6 for Europe, his next assignment.

Mrs. Margie Covington, his wife, expects to follow him later.

Chickenpox is still going around. Jane and Danny Hix, children of Mr. and Mrs. William Hix, III, had severe cases of it, but they are better now.

Friday, March 30, over night guests of Linda and Mrs. Patrick Lair were Mr. and Mrs. George Jacoby of Detroit.

From Knoxville, Tenn. came Mr. Jim Erwin and his two young daughters, Linda Gail and Jill, to visit his mother, Mrs. Flossie Hix Erwin on Tuesday, April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shaging, Jr. Carol, J., and Sheila, of Salesbury, N. C. spent Sunday with her mother Mrs. Flossie Hix Erwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hix and Keith of Harrisonburg, were week-end guests of his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Hix. The Tom Hixes say that they like Harrisonburg "just fine."

Mrs. Watkins McPhillips, Mike and Kim of Richmond, arrived at the home of Mr. Ed McPhillips on Friday.

Mr. Watkins McPhillips joined his family on Saturday and accompanied them back to Richmond on Sunday.

Mrs. Edward Kinckle Martin, Sr. of Gladstone was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Martin, from Monday, until Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Childers of Lynchburg were dinner guests of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Covington, on Sunday.

Saturday, April 7, was the first day for trout fishing. Eight a day is the limit for trout.

Mr. Edwin Fore, Mr. Lloyd Coleman and his two sons went to Nelson County to fish in Piney River. As usual there was a big crowd Perhaps a thousand fishermen were on hand. Some brought tents and spent the night.

Mr. Fore slipped on a rock and fell into the water and somehow the entire nail was torn from the thumb on his right hand.

CHANGE MOST IMPORTANT FARMING CHARACERISTIC

Change is the most important characteristic of modern farming —and what farmers need most is the personal ability to make decisions under changing conditions, says Dr. Ralph G. Kline, associate agricultural economist at Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

He says many farmers have made great strides in adopting improved practices. There have been changes in prices, changes in technology, changes in rules and regulations. The farmer who cannot adjust simply doesn't make much money.

Dr. Kline cites a recent North Carolina State College study which indicates that the ability of the farmer to manage is the most important single factor in determining potential farm income.

The findings imply that farmers in low income areas could much better generally Adult education designed to improve management ability and more intensive training would be needed and intensive than in the case, Dr. Kline says.

Rocks

ROCKS, April 9 — It was really rainy here over the week-end.

Several sick in the community, we hope they will soon be out again.

The Executive Committee Meeting of the Appomattox Association met at Spring Creek church on last Monday night.

The Bible School workers met on last Tuesday night to discuss plans for the school in June.

The mid week service was very well attended on Wednesday night.

We wish Rev. W. H. Elder's father a speedy recovery, he is in the hospital in Lynchburg.

The Home Demonstration Club held it's April meeting with Mrs. Thomas Ranson on Thursday night.

IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my dear son and brother, Wesley M. Franklin, who passed away ten years ago today, April 2, 1952.

April brings and memories
Of a loved one gone to rest.
You will never be forgotten
By the ones who loved you best.
Memories are treasures no one can steal.
Some have forgotten you now that you are gone.
But we will remember no matter how long.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they will wipe out never.
The memory of those happy days When we were all together.
Beside your grave I often stand With heart both crushed and sore.
But in the gloom the sweet words come
Not lost but gone before.
God knows how I miss him
He counts the tears I shed.
And whispers, He only sleeps,
Your loved one is not dead.
Sadly missed by —
Mother, Sisters and Brothers

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my father, Aurelious A. Baldwin, who left me fifteen years ago, April 12, 1947.
Sad and sudden was the call,
of one so dearly loved by all.
It was a bitter grief, a shock
severe, to part with one I loved so dear.
Sadly missed by daughter.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of T. M. Martin, who departed this life April 13, 1951.

It was eleven years ago
When you went to rest,
God calls all
And He calls the best.
We still love you
Until death do us part,
We'll always love you
From the depths of your heart.
